Wrinkles

Around the Eyes

Are usually caused by defective sight. Many women, and likewise men, look prematurely old from these wrinkles. The wrinkles in many cases can be removed by wearing correctly fitted glasses. To fit glasses correctly demands a thorough knowledge of refraction and the necessary instruments. We have both; hundreds of satisfied customers will say so.

AN INFORMAL MARRIAGE.

Miss Alice Hopkins and Mr. Robert P. Speight Married This Morn.

At 7:30 o'clock this morning, Miss Alice May Hopkins, of Reidsville, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert P. Speight, of Tarboro, the ceremony being performed in the parlor of the McAdoo House, in this city. It was an informal affair, only a few relatives of both parties being present.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. J. M. Hopkins, of the Williams-Hopkins Company, of Reidsville, and a sister of Lindsay Hopkins, who is well known here, having been connected with with the Patriot for a long time. The groom is a progressive young business man of Tarboro and one of the most popular young men in that city.

Relatives of the bride, who attended the marriage, returned home on the 8:10 local this morning, while the happy young couple, accompanied by the groom's brothers, Messrs. H. L. and R. H. Speight, who accompanied him here, left on the Raleigh train for their future home in Tarboro.

May happiness and prosperity always be theirs.

THE JOINT TASK.

Of Formulating The Articles of The Peace Treaty.

By Cable to the TELEGRAM.

Paris, Nov. 29—The secretaries of the the two peace commissions began the joint task this afternoon of formulating the articles of the peace treaty. The work is easy and rapid as far as the relinquishment and cession referred to in the protocol are concerned.

The terms of the protocol will be transferred bodily to the treaty. The secretaries, moreover, will embody in tentative the articles for discussion on Wednesday. The subjects are religious freedom in the Carolines, a naval station for the states in the same group, cable, leading rights at other points within Spain's jurisdiction, the release of the insurrectionist prisoners and the revival of the treaties which were broken during the war.

TO INCREASE THE ARMY.

Call of Chairman Hull to Consider a Bill.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Chairman Hull, of the house committee on military affairs, has issued a call for a meeting of the committee early next week, to consider a bill to increase the regular army to one hundred thousand.

Chairman Hull has conferred with Chairman Cannon of the appropriations committee. Owing to the importance of the army deficiency bill passing without delay, it is not expected the army re organization matter will receive attention before some time in January. Chairman Hull is inclined to press the proposed measure, however, as he thinks the bill should become a law at an early day.

War Investigators.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Boston, Nov. 29—The war investigators met at the Parker House and went into executive session, no witnesses appearing, while telegrams and messengers were sent in all directions to summon any who had manifested a willingness to appear before them.

GROWING WITH GREENSBORO.

The Piedmont Converted Into a National Bank.

ITS CAPITAL STOCK INCREASED.

The New Name Will Be "The City National Bank of Greensboro"—This Step Decided Yesterday.

Greensboro is to have another National bank. This does not mean a new bank, but that the Piedmont Bank is to be converted into a National bank. At a meeting of the board of directors held on yesterday a resolution to increase the capital stock of the bank from sixty thousand to one hundred thousand dollars, and a recommendation to convert the same into a national association, was unanimously adopted.

For sometime the matter of entering the National system, has been discussed by the officers and directors. They have looked thoroughly into the merits of this system, and after mature deliberation, are convinced that it will be a wise change. It is well known that National banks are under the strict supervision of the government and that its notes are secured by United States bonds and for these reasons with others, have more prestige in a community than state and private institutions. The term "National" seems to lend an element of security, and a stranger locating and engaging in business in a town, where there is a national and a state or private bank, almost invariably chooses the National in which to deposit his funds. In fact, from almost every point, the National system has some advantage and there is little doubt that in the near future there will be Federal legislation which will greatly increase its advantages.

It is hardly necessary to mention the rapid and substantial growth of Greensboro and our need of more capital. These are facts well known. The business of the bank for the current year has been most satisfactory, showing an encourging increase, and it is confidently believed by the officers that under the National system it will greatly enlarge within the next twelve months.

RELIEVED AND HAPPY.

No Element of Uncertainty as to Pending Negotiations.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 29.—There is now no element of uncertainty as to the pending negotiations between the United States and Spain. The president and members of the cabinet are awaiting the formal signing of the peace treaty, which will take place at Paris tomorrow. They are perfectly confident the demands of the Americans will be complied with fully. The adminstration is immensely relieved and in a most happy mood today.

COTTON TAKES A JUMP.

Good Staple Now Believed to Be a Scarce Article.

New York, Nov. 28—Prices at the New York Cotton Exchange jumped up 12 to 14 points today, owing to active and higher Liverpool market, cold rainy and snowy weather at the south, tendency to reduce crop estimates, sharp export demand at the south, rising spot market and heavy covering of shorts for account local, southern and European operators. Good cotton is scarce. Low grades are unusually plentiful and some persons think that the scarcity of contract cotton may yet be severely felt. Some of the cotton raised in parts of Georgia and Arkansas is selling for only $15 a bale, which is something never known before.

The Blackmail Case.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Albany, Nov. 29—The court has declined the motion of the attorney of Mrs. Cody, charged with attempting to blackmail the Goulds by endeavoring to establish the dower rights of Mrs. Angel. The jury was empaneled. Helen Gould, aunt and neice were present.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News From Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C. Nov. 29

The Union Furniture Company, recently organized, met last night and got up their incorporation papers. The committee appointed at the last meeting to buy a lot to build the factory on, reported that the lot desired by the company could not be secured. They will doubtless locate their factory on the Southern railway, east of the Coffin factory. The officers will be elected at next meeting after the company has been incorporated.

We are glad to see Mr. A. B. Sapp back at his post again after a week's illness.

Ernest Linwood, the burnt cork artist who made such a "hit" here with the Drake Medicine Company two years ago, is corresponding with some of the boys in regard to coming here and organizing a minstrel. Ernest himself is a "corker," but he alone cannot make a good minstrel, but if he thinks he has the power and is willing to try his hand on some of the knotty-headed know-alls that we have here, we would be glad if he would come on and go to work. But should he come and organize a minstrel, let them not advertise a great entertainment and put tickets on sale two weeks before they know what they are going to give the people, especially if it is anything like the last one given here by our boys. We don't think that any harm could be done some of our boys if they would go down to Greensboro next Friday night and take in Richards & Pringle's-Rusco & Holland's Big Minstrel Festival.

Miss Phoebe Jones, of Salem, arrived last night and will make her home with the family of her brother, Dr. W. G. Jones. We welcome Miss Jones in our midst.

Magistrate-elect N. W. Beeson went to Greensboro on the noon train to be sworn in as magistrate.

There was a man in town today wearing the stripes, but not the stars. He had had charge of the county road machine. There was no particular glory or "old glory" about it.

Mrs. Ida Beeson returned to Greensboro last night, where she holds a position as bookkeeper with the Southern Finishing and Warehouse Company.

Archdale and Trinity will soon be connected by telephone.

A traveling man pawned a gold watch to "Uncle Nick" for his board bill, and the time having expired for him to redeem it, Uncle Nick now offers it very cheap.

The M. P. Conference which has been in session at Liberty, closed yesterday, and we are very glad indeed that Rev. Mr. Loudermilk returns to High Point. He was the founder of the M. P. Church at this place and has made a good record for himself during the four years he has been pastor of this church. Rev. W. C. Hammer has returned to the Guilford circuit, which includes the Lebanon church, two miles northwest of here.

We are very glad indeed to learn that Frank Brown, who is in the hospital at Savannah with typhoid fever, is improving.

Black Island Wrecked.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Providence, Fov. 29—Black Island, so far as heard from, is wrecked, its hotels being shattered and vessels torn to pieces in the storm. The entire fishing fleet of twenty-four vessels is a total wreck. The three-masted schooner, Lexington, of Machias, is the main loss. The Hartford Dredging Company's plant is gone.

A Result of the Storm.

By Wire to the Telegram.

New York, Nov. 29—A British cargo steamer, which sailed from here on Saturday, passed Sandy Hook today returning, with her bridge damaged and several boats gone, evidently the result of the storm.

PAST SEASON A GOOD ONE.

Wheat and Corn Crops Have Been Abundant.

RAILROADS THE BENEFICIARIES.

An Interesting Case Came Up Before The Interstate Commerce Commission Today.

Special to the Telegram.

Washington, Nov. 29—An interesting case came up before the Interstate Commerce Commission today. The case is that of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, which is charged with discrimination in freight rates, in violation of the interstate commerce law. The case was up before the commission for arguments only, the company being represented by General Wickham, Solicitor General for the company, who has his headquarters at Richmond Va. and General J. W. St. Clair, one of the counsel of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, who came to Washington from Fayette, West Virginia.

General Wickham during his stay in Washington stopped at the Shoreham hotel. The General says the railroad projects are materializing all over the south, and that three new freight lines will soon have their termini at Richmond. The past season, says the General, has been a good one in the railroad business. The wheat and corn crops have been abundant; in fact so much so that good prices could not be had. The tobacco planters, and cattle raisers, however, have all been able to get excellent prices.

General St. Clair was seen at the Shoreham, and he says that on the whole that business in West Virginia has been very satisfactory. The low prices for cotton prevailing in the south have not had much effect in his state. As to railroad business, he agrees with General Wickham that the past season has been a very good one.

In speaking of the case before the Insterstate commerce commission, both General Wickham and General St. Clair agreed that the charge of discrimination in freight rates against the Chesapeake and Ohio would not be sustained by the commission.

Mr. R. R. King, of Greensboro, North Carolina, is at the Raleigh hotel. He is in Washington on personal business. Mr. King was seen yesterday at the Raleigh, and stated that the people of the state were quiet, and that no further trouble is apprehend. The recent elections in Greensboro, he states, passed off satisfactorily to both of the political parties. Mr. King is of the opinion that the legislature at its session this winter will repeal the infamous laws passed by the republican legislature, by which the appointment of local officers in certain towns was taken from the hands of the local authorities and placed in the hands of the governor.

Among southern people in Washington is Rev. James L. White, formerly a colored pastor of North Carolina, but who now has a charge in the state of New York. Mr. White is here for the purpose of addressing a meeting of colored people on the race problem in the south. In conversation he says that the colored people in the south are more to blame for the troubles than are the white people, who have always looked out for them.

The article in Sunday's Washington Post, from the pen of Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, upon the race problem, is very favorably commented upon. The senator has received many congratulations.

Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia has returned to Washington for a session of congress. The Senator is very hopeful that the democrats may succeed in securing a majority in the West Virginia Legislature, on joint ballot, which would insure his return to the Senate.

The announcement that General James C. Clarke, of Maryland, has been presented by the imployes of the Mobile and Ohio railroad, of which he is president, with a handsome testimonial, is received with much pleasure by his friends in this section. General Clarke is well known throughout Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. It is said that when he took charge of the affairs of the Mobile and Ohio, it was in a bad condition, but under his successful and able management it has become one of the important trunk lines of the country.

Democratic members of congress are arriving in Washington very slowly. Among those already here, there is a decided sentiment against the continued leadership of Hon. Joseph Bailey of Texas. The eastern and southern members appear to be settling in favor of Bankhead.

WORK OF THE STORM.

The Number of Dead—Many Vessels Wrecked.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Boston, Nov. 29—According to the latest information thirty-nine persons perished in the storm along the Massachusetts coast. It is expected the list will increase as communication is opened. With a few exceptions the entire seafarers of thirty vessels are totally wrecked.

Few vessels driven ashore are yet off. There is no news from the Portland or the revenue cutters in search of her. She was reported at anchor outside the bay but it is now known that she is not there.

A BATTERED WRECK.

Boston, Nov. 29—(Later)—The steamer Portland is a battered wreck on the sands at Truro, near Cape Cod. Sixty-four persons perished. Thirty-four bodies have washed ashore. She went ashore on Sunday morning just off Highland Light. The sea was so rough it was impossible to render assistance.

Great Social Distinction.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Nov. 29—Dr. Landbarbarder, who has just returned from Cuba, says it is a mistake to send negro troops there as there is as much social distinction between Cubans and negroes as there is between the negroes and whites in this country.

A New Appointee.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Nov. 29—Edgar Allen has been appointed United States Attorney for the Eastern district of Virginia.

TUESDAY, NOV. 29, 1898.

Next year, 1899, begins on Sunday and ends on Sunday, thereby giving the year fifty-three Sundays. This sounds strange to some people, who have not been close observers, but it happens every time the first day of January comes on Sunday.

Admiral Dewey has raised three of the Spanish warships which he sunk in Manila bay on the first day of May. The Raleigh Post observes that "he must be a regular razor-back. He razed the Spanish warships and now he has razed them again. He indulges in the razee business for the fun of it."

The Durham Sun advocates Ex-Judge Connor for speaker of the next house of representatives. As we have before observed, it would be hard for the legislature to make a mistake in the selection of a presiding officer. Judge Connor is all right, and so is Overman, Allen, Craige, and we might go on calling the roll of members-elect.

What was declared to be entirely satisfactory to the preachers and laymen of the Western North Carolina conference, falls far short of filling the bill for Prof. W. F. Massey, of Raleigh. He is out in a half-column spasm over the Duke donation to Trinity College in this morning's News and Observer. The "spirit of tolerance," with its great white-plumed wings of peace, has not hovered over him with even tolerable success.

In accepting the terms of peace presented by the United States, Spain says she is "inspired by reasons of patriotism and humanity, and to avoid the horrors of war, she resigns herself to the power of the victor." Spain should have thought of the "patriotism and humanity" business when she was waging her merciless war against the insurgents in Cuba; and it is strange she did not think of the "horrors of war" last April when she had a chance to avoid it all.

Corbett and Sharkey with their managers, held a conference in the office of the Police Gazette yesterday afternoon for the purpose of investigating the recent contest. Why not turn the whole thing over to the war investigators? It is all a perfect fiasco anyhow and all business of that kind should be lumped together. Pugilism is a backnumber, and should be driven back to the dark ages along with Spanish bull fights. Such things have no proper place in the enlightened glow of the latter part of the nineteenth century.

Reefton, New Zealand, Nov.23,1896.
I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicines the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

Constipation prevents the body from ridding itself of waste matter. De Witt's Little Early Risers will remove the trouble and cure Sick Headache, Biliousness, Inactive Liver and clear the Complexion. Small, sugar coated, do not gripe or cause nausea. Howard Gardner.

Judge Conner For Speaker.

Among many suggested for speaker of the next House, in our opinion, Judge Connor is pre-eminently the man. His ability is unquestioned—his character above reproach. The people of the state know him and have entire confidence in his judgement and patriotism. His election would be accepted as a guarantee by the farming and business interests that conservatism would rule in the councils of the legislature. Judge Connor would not only be acceptable to all factions of the democratic party, but also to the 30,000 white republicans and populists who voted with us to redeem the state from negro domination. We want them to remain with us. The Sun, therefore, thinks that Judge Connor's selection is the wisest that can be made.—Durham Sun.

Trinity College Notes.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Durham, Nov. 28—Dr. W. P. Few has recently returned from Nashville, Tenn., where he had been to attend a meeting of the Commission of Education appointed by the last general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The duty of the commission was to prescribe the minimum requirements for admission to the freshman class and the minimum requirements for the baccalaureate degrees. The commission was composed of ten educators. A permanent organization was effected, with the following officers: Chairman, Dr. James H. Carlisle, of Wofford College, S. C.; Vice-Chairman, Dr. W. M. Baskerville, Vanderbilt University, Tenn.: Secretary, Dr. W. P. Few, Trinity College, N. C.

A standard of minimum requirements was set and a course of college instruction was outlined. It will be the business of the board of education at once to take these and apply them to the Methodist institutions of the south, and those institutions falling below the standard of admission requirements, or requirements for baccalaureate degrees, will be classed as a high school, and no longer as a college.

The regular monthly meeting of the Science Club was held last Saturday evening. Dr. Hamaker reviewed several articles in recent numbers of Science, but Prof. Edwards occupied the larger part of the evening. He explained the relation between radiant heat, light and electricity, and illustrated his remarks by a series of striking electrical experiments, which greatly interested those present. The lecture room in Crowell Science Hall was crowded, and if the attendance at the meetings continues to increase, the club will be compelled to meet in a larger room.

THE 'CUMBERLAND.'

At anchor in Hampton Roads we lay
On board of the Cumberland, sloop-of-war,
And at times from the fortress across the bay
The alarum of drums swept past
Or a bugle blast
From the camp on the shore.

Then far away to the south up rose
A little feather of snow white smoke,
And we knew that the iron ship of our foes
Was steadily steering its course
To try the force
Of our ribs of oak.

Down upon us heavily runs,
Silent and sullen, the floating fort;
Then comes a puff of smoke from her guns
And leaps the terrible death,
With fiery breath,
From each open port.

We are not idle, but send her straight
Defiance back in a full broadside!
As hail rebounds from a roof of slate
Rebounds our heavier hail
From each iron scale
Of the monster's hide.

"Strike your flag!" the rebel cries
In his arrogant old plantation strain.
"Never!" our gallant Morris replies.
"It is better to sink than to yield!"
And the whole air pealed
With the cheers of our men.

Then like a kraken huge and black
She crushed our ribs in her iron grasp.
Down went the Cumberland all a wrack,
With a sudden shudder of death
And the cannon's breath
For her dying gasp.

Next morn, as the sun rose over the bay,
Still floated our flag at the mainmast head.
Lord, how beautiful was thy day!
Every waft of the air
Was a whisper of prayer
Or a dirge for the dead.

Ho, brave hearts that went down in the seas!
Ye are at peace in the troubled stream.
Ho, brave land, with hearts like these,
Thy flag, that is rent in twain,
Shall be one again
And without a seam!

—Longfellow.

"FILLED" BEDCLOTHES.

They Are Moisture Attractors, and Death Lurks In Them.

Science, thy name is adulteration! Another terror has been added to existence by the revelations made by a trade paper of the processes by which certain manufacturers "fill" the sheets and blankets with which they flood the market.

We are told that after a piece of waste sheeting has been woven the cloth is passed over a trough containing a solution of zinc, sulphate of magnesia (commonly known as epsom salts) and water. This is called a sprinkler. A revolving brush plays a spray of these noxious ingredients upon the cloth, with the result that a 50 pound piece after the operation weighs 71¼ pounds more than when it left the loom. As the goods are sold by the pound, the object is evident.

But what about the purchaser? A piece cuts up into ten pairs of sheets. Each pair therefore contains three-quarters of a pound of moisture attracting material. The results are appalling. As soon as a wet day comes the sheets become damp and the luckless wight who sleeps between them is apt to contract a chill that may send him to the bourn whence no traveler returns. Even if his suspicions are aroused and he boldly casts aside the sheets and wraps himself in the blankets it may avail him nothing, for the blanket makers have learned the trick, and the same ill results may ensue.

Next we shall hear that the counterpane makers are equally astute, and the timid sleeper may be driven to provide himself with the woolen sleeping bags that suggest travels in the farthest north. The only advantage of these "filled" or heavily "sized" sheets and blankets is that they are death to insects, but if they kill the sleeper as well as the pulex irritans—to say nothing of the cimex lectularius—what boots it?—London Telegraph.

A Financial Embarrassment.

A lady who had a kindly remembrance for all her domestic servants met an erstwhile washerwoman and stopped to ask her how she fared.

"Oh, mem, it's turrible finanshul disthress me an the childer's in!"

"Why, what is it—are you out of employment?"

"No, mem; work's in a fair state o' stiddiness, and not a cint do I owe, but it's lashins o' trouble I've got!"

"Are you not paid promptly?"

"As promptly as the day comes round."

"What is your financial distress, then?"

"Well, mem" (in a burst of horror), "what's killin me is, I earn $6 the week an pay $8 for me boord, an God only knows how I do it!"—Short Stories.

Antique.

Says a dealer in antiquities: "I had a fat woman in here the other day. Well, sir, she was a caution, was that fat woman. She would have the antique all through her house, sir, nothing but the antique for her house decoration. Why, sir, judging by what that fat woman said and bought in this shop, I should judge she was heartbroken, sir, that she couldn't get the shades of her ancestors for her parlor windows."—New York Tribune.

A Sure Sign of Croup.

Hoarseness in a child that is subject to croup is a sure indication of the approach of the desease. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough has appeared, it will prevent the attack. Many mothers who have croupy children always keep this remedy at hand and finds that it saves them much trouble and worry. It can always be depended upon and is pleasant to take. For sale by, C. E. The Social Standing of most men is much higher than the sum of their income. To such men it must be good news to learn that they do not have to pinch themselves in order that they may pay the extravagant tailor's bills. We sell perfectly fitting clothes for business, semi-dress or full dress occasions of unquestionable style and superb qualities at prices which permit the saving of almost half tailor's bills. Our best clothes are made by the famous New York tailors, Messrs. Fecheimer, Fishel & Co., whose label on every garment is a guarantee that the clothes are equal to "custom made" in every particular. Therefore, whether it is a sack suit, a cutaway or a Prince Albert frock, a pair of trousers, a top coat or an overcoat that you need, do yourself the justice to at least see our offerings—and then go to your tailor if you like—but you won't.
